

RIPPLES

Designed by Søren Ravn Christensen

LET'S PUT SILICONE INTO A NEW LIGHT

Designed by Søren Ravn Christensen, the Ripples embodies the Nordic feel and beauty. Covered by an innovative silicone layer, this lampshade has the beautiful and delicate appearance of porcelain, a soft and smooth finish and an unseen sturdiness due to its unbreakable surface.

Available in three different shapes – the Slope, the Cusp and the Curve – these elegant and minimalistic lamps could be used either in a beautiful random cluster or in a neat straight line, offering a warm and diffused light. These pendant lights are perfect for living room, dining room or bedroom, adding warmth and harmony to the home.
